The December New Moon Eclipse (Arrow of Nii) is one of the most powerful in decades. It heralds the once every 20 year Jupiter/Saturn conjunction on the solstice and represents a 'changing of the guardians', a shift in personal perspective as well as global. Between now and the Solstice, you can pre-pave your dreams for the future, and have confidence in their success. Expect a whole new experience going forward into 2021!

Arrow of Nii Original Whistle Bone

The Arrow of Nii represents the exploration of the mind-body-spirit connection. To take this step, the initiate must reach for new horizons and experience knowledge de novo. This is not wisdom handed down, but fresh insight discovered for oneself.

Utilize this energy by allowing yourself to be open to new possibilities as you explore the unknown.

ARIES: The New Moon Eclipse wakes up your house of travel as you ready to explore the world! I know, what the heck travel is she talking about, right? If you can't jump on a jet and head for new horizons - and it's likely the case - find other ways to expand: read a novel set in a foreign country, try a new meditation technique, prepare foreign-to-you cuisine, discover a fresh perspective or philosophy. When you set your intentions for 2021, raise your aim. Shoot for more than you ever have before. The year of expansion...

TAURUS: Time to shake up the status quo and get yourself further along the path. This New Moon Eclipse brings opportunities for you to am up goals for the future and unite them with like-minded others. You are also a bit of a money magnet when it comes to applying for loans, funding, grants, and general, practical support. Be ready for the YES! Consider setting intentions that fit in with more productive, creative endeavors. If you are looking for compatible intimacy, put that in the mix too. The year of collaboration...

GEMINI: This incredible New Moon Eclipse activates your house of partnership and, single or committed, you are going to be 'in it' for sure. By that, I mean relationship. It could be intimate, business, artistic, friendship, and/or romantic. What it won't be is boring. This is your chance to learn more about yourself, your comfort zones, and your opportunities for expansion, all while meeting great success. It's a sunrise, heralding golden opportunities when you allow your heart to soar! The year of communion...

CANCER: Happy New Moon Eclipse! Your ruler la Luna is primed to open your eyes when it comes to magic as you set your most powerful intentions now. Make a ritual out of it. Treat it with reverence and respect. Doing so not only sets you up for success, it sends a protective light around you, shielding you from harm. Think of 'angel medicine' as you literally feel your mind-body-spirit unite in a healing, strengthening spell. From now on, you walk a little taller, speak a little stronger, and attract MORE of what you need to carry on along the path. The year of healing...

LEO: Are you ready for one of the most spectacular experiences of your life? This New Moon Eclipse activates your house of creative self-expression so it's amazing for your artistic side, the part of you that writes, paints, dances, sings, plays, performs... But that's just the surface level. Down deep, your heart is stirring, attracting into your life the amazing romance, the golden opportunity, the contract, the option, the sales the recognition you have only, thus far, dreamed of. As you set your intentions for success, remember to find the core value behind your desires and call that into being too. The year of receiving...

VIRGO: This New Moon Eclipse invites you to imagine the home of your dreams, and call it in. That's right. Make it so. The energy behind you now is strong enough, focused enough, and powerful enough to have you settled in a whole new environment by Easter - if that is what you want. If you'd rather stay put, then go ahead and muse on those repairs, remodels, and redesign projects you've put on the back burner because that is possible too. Changing the Feng Shui of your home will have far-reaching effects on your health, relationships, work, and career. Never underestimate the power of PLACE in your life. The year of sanctuary...

LIBRA: This Lunar event will turn your life upside down, in wonderful, enlightening ways. First of all, the intentions you set around communication, the written and the spoken word, have wings that fly further, and higher, than ever before. Lift your sights because chances are, right now, you are not aiming high enough! Blast through that glass ceiling with your thoughts and be ready to arc far beyond your wildest dreams. This is creative, romantic, auspicious, and risky. But really, what is there to risk when you are on the right-for-you path? The year of magical connections...

SCORPIO: Are you ready for more in your life? More support, more income, more acknowledgment, more success? If not, let go of resistance now because this New Moon Eclipse is opening the floodgates of fresh opportunities. Whatever talent or resource you've been sitting on, hesitant to develop for a variety of reasons, no doubt valid in your mind, it's time to stop resisting. Stand up! Shake it off and step forward because when these opportunities strike, you want to say YES. See this time as leading to great, but inevitable change as you take the steps toward living your most creative life. The year of surprising breakthroughs...

SAGITTARIUS: This is your most spectacular New Moon Eclipse to date, offering a dazzling array of inspiration and creative drive. You want to expand and the only challenge will be choosing which direction to go! All major pillars of life are activated, asking you to honor each one with the notion of and/and, not either/or. Self-development AND partnership. Home AND career. Family AND individuality. Freedom AND closeness... As energy rushing in, lifting you to higher sights and aspirations, trust that life is taking you, now and always, in the perfect direction for you. The year of golden opportunities...

CAPRICORN: This powerhouse New Moon Eclipse invites you to take a load off. Relax. Put your feet up and dream. It's possible that you have been pushing yourself so hard for so long that easing off the gas seems like a foreign concept, but let it sink in. This isn't about giving up on the reward, the accomplishment, or the recognition. It's not about dropping aspirations for success. Instead, it's the notion of dropping the struggle, letting go of resistance. The epiphany within may well be that you do not have to 'make' things happen; you simply allow them to happen. Try it! The year of ease and delight...

AQUARIUS: Buckle up, my Water-bearer friends because this New Moon Eclipse is going to change the way you see the world. And as your perspective shifts, so shifts the experience of life around you. You may well find yourself in a new group, tribe or clan, one that resonates with your very soul as you amp up your collective desires for a better world. It's that epic! The cosmic social worker in you has a new task and the assignment is handed down over the next weeks, months at the most. So take a deep breath, smile and feel the power of the universe in your voice. The year of changing the world...

PISCES: Whatever it is that represents your true and most cherished calling, expect to meet it, and soon. This New Moon Eclipse supercharges your career zone, expanding the possibilities for the future, taking them further than ever before imagined. At first, it may seem too far fetched. Just impossible. But no. It is within your capabilities. Within your reach. All you have to do is see it first and invite the stunning opportunities in. Setting intentions now around your true mission in life has the potential to set you in a whole new direction. The year of answering the call...
